

PRESTON PRIMARY SCHOOL

AUTUMN TERM 2018

WEEK FOUR

This half term is going so quickly – they do say time flies when you are having fun.

Greek Day

This week saw a sea of togas and Grecian Gods and Goddesses around school. I have never seen bed sheets look so amazing! The children had a phenomenal day, tasting Greek food and experiencing some of the activities like true Greeks – making shields, crowns and participating in their own Olympic games! I have to say though, an awful lot of olives made the way to the staff room so I am not sure they will be on your children's high points from the day!

Classlist – DON'T FORGET TO DOWNLOAD THE APP

The PTA are trialing the use of Classlist – an app that allows parents to communicate with each other and gives the PTA a way to push out messages about events. We cannot give PTA your information due to data protection in the same way we can't give out class lists for birthday parties etc. This is a way you can sign up to be a member, talk to other parents and find information about events. This WILL NOT REPLACE our school system. If you would like to join download the app, search for Preston Primary Eaglescliffe and a request will be sent for approval – to check you really are a parent to ensure your data stays safe. Any questions please speak to a member of the PTA.

TESCO

Please, please, please, please – can you drum up support for the blue tokens in Tesco? We are looking to install some outdoor equipment for the children to use at break and lunch times. We have secured £1000 so far from our local One Stop – Thank you and the more we raise the more equipment we can purchase. Closing date is 31st October. Fingers crossed.

Have a great weekend with your families – Sue Richardson
